1. Event Overview

Finova – The Finance Club of St. Xavier's College, Ranchi, in collaboration with Learn-O-Maniac, organised the ITR Filing & Tax Consultancy Masterclass on 16 August 2026.

The session was conducted online through Google Meet and was led by Divyanshu Sanyal. The masterclass was designed to provide participants with practical knowledge of income tax, ITR filing and tax consultancy, while helping them understand how taxation concepts are applied in real-world financial situations.

The session focused on developing practical tax awareness rather than limiting the discussion to theoretical concepts. Around 60 participants took part in the two-hour learning session.

2. Event Highlights

- Practical ITR Filing: Participants gained practical insights into the ITR filing process and tax consultancy.
- Five Heads of Income: The session covered the five heads of income and their role in taxation.
- Tax Regimes: Participants learned about the Old and New Tax Regimes and their relevance in financial planning.
- Excel-Based Calculations: Practical tax calculations were demonstrated using Excel.
- Filing Requirements: The session discussed important financial records and information required for ITR filing.
- Interactive Session: Quizzes and questions were included to make the session engaging and encourage active participation.

3. Event Proceedings

The masterclass commenced at 3:00 PM through Google Meet. The session began with a discussion of basic income-tax concepts, followed by the five heads of income.

The discussion then progressed towards practical topics such as the Old and New Tax Regimes, tax calculations using Excel, financial records required for ITR filing, and the overall process and tools used for filing an income tax return.

Throughout the session, participants were encouraged to interact through questions and quizzes. This made the session more engaging and provided opportunities for participants to test their understanding of the concepts being discussed.

The two-hour session concluded with participants gaining a clearer understanding of taxation, compliance and the practical aspects of ITR filing.

4. Outcomes & Achievements

- Successfully conducted a two-hour online masterclass on ITR Filing and Tax Consultancy.
- Provided participants with practical exposure to income-tax fundamentals and ITR filing.
- Helped participants understand the five heads of income.
- Introduced the differences between the Old and New Tax Regimes.
- Provided practical exposure to Excel-based tax calculations.
- Created awareness about the financial records and information required for ITR filing.
- Encouraged active learning through quizzes and interactive questions.
- Strengthened participants' awareness of tax compliance and financial planning.
- Engaged approximately 60 participants throughout the session.

5. Speaker

DIVYANSHU SANYAL

The masterclass was conducted by Divyanshu Sanyal, who guided participants through the practical aspects of income tax, ITR filing and tax consultancy.

The session focused on making taxation easier to understand by connecting basic concepts with practical applications. His approach helped participants gain a clearer perspective on tax compliance, tax calculations and the process of filing an income tax return.

Session Focus:

Helping participants file right, stay compliant and make smarter financial decisions.

6. Acknowledgement

Finova extends its sincere gratitude to Divyanshu Sanyal for conducting the masterclass and sharing valuable practical insights into income tax and ITR filing.

A special acknowledgement is also extended to Learn-O-Maniac for collaborating with Finova in organising the session.

The club appreciates all the participants who joined the masterclass and actively engaged through questions and quizzes. Their participation contributed significantly to making the session informative and interactive.

The event reflects Finova's commitment towards promoting practical financial literacy and creating learning opportunities beyond the classroom.
